

Foster Care

A temporary system children go into when they cannot live with their biological family often because of traumatic events.

80% of Foster Care Children experience Mental Health Issues

When arriving at their new home, foster care children don't have anything but the clothes they are currently wearing.

Even though CPS workers deal with trauma with foster children everyday, they are not trained to handle it properly

Want to learn more/help the cause? Visit our website!

